
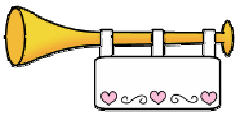
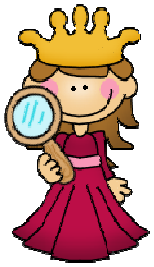
Fairy Tales Stories





Fairy tales are stories that are based on enchantment and magic. As Christians we know that magic isn't real and all miracles come from God, but many times fairy tales help us to learn about morals and good behaviour through the characters in the story. The setting or where the story takes place is usually in a magical land of where anything can happen - growing beanstalks, talking animals, princes and princesses, dragons and elves. Fairy tales are completely fictional or make-believe and have been told for hundreds of years all over the world.
